READY MAY FIRST
ESSENTIALS OF LATIN FOR BEGINNERS

By Henry Carr Pearson, Horace Mann School, Teachers
 College, New York; author of Pearson's Latin Prose
 Composition and Greek Prose Composition.

PRICE 90 CENTS

The Essentials of Latin for Beginners is designed to prepare pupils in a thorough fashion to read Caesar's Gallic War. It contains seventy lessons, including ten devoted exclusively to reading, and six supplementary lessons. The first seventy lessons contain the minimum of what a pupil should know in order to read Latin with any intelligence or satisfaction. The six supplementary lessons treat certain principles of syntax that some teachers may not wish to present to their pupils during the first year. They are independent of one another and of the rest of the book, and may be taken up in any order, or may be omitted.

The following special features will commend the book to teachers of first year Latin.

(1) The carefully selected vocabulary, containing, with a few exceptions, only those words which occur with the greatest frequency in the Gallic War. The first seventy lessons present about five hundred words.

(2) The constant comparison of English and Latin usage. Little knowledge of English grammar on the part of the pupil is taken for granted.

(3) The logical and consecutive treatment of topics. Nouns, adjectives, pronouns and verbs are not treated in a piecemeal fashion, but four or five consecutive lessons are given to a topic before passing on to another.

(4) The review exercises in each lesson, employing the vocabularies and constructions of the preceding lessons.

(5) The carefully graded material for reading. Ten of the seventy lessons present adaptations of the first ten chapters of Book One of the Gallic War. Following the lessons are given frequent selections from Viri Romae, and the first twenty chapters of the Gallic War, Book Two, in simplified form.

(6) Allowing ample time for reviews, the first seventy lessons should be thoroughly mastered in about twenty-five weeks.

A number of well known teachers of Latin have read the manuscript and rendered valuable assistance by their suggestions or criticisms, among them Mr. H. F. Towle, Boys' High School, Brooklyn; Mr. A. L. Hodges, Wadleigh High School, New York; Mr. J. A. Inglis, Horace Mann High School, New York; and Mr. Herbert T. Rich, Boston Latin School. The book has also had the benefit of the personal criticism of Prof. M. H. Morgan of Harvard University, one of the editors of the series, who has carefully read both the manuscript and proof.

Correspondence with reference to the examination and introduction of the book is cordially invited. Descriptive catalogue of Latin text-books will be sent to any address upon application.

WILLIAM TAYLOR & SON

WHEN we published Barss' Writing Latin, Book One, a distinguished teacher of Latin wrote: "A real help to the beginner. If I should pick out details, the Hints on pages 8, 9, 10, 15, 18, 28, 30, and 32 are little masterpieces of intelligent and intelligible explanation." When Book II was issued, he wrote: "I like it even better than the first part." Perhaps you might agree with him.

Book One—Second Year Work. Price 50 cents.

Book Two—Third and Fourth Year Work. Price 75 cents.

The BELLUM HELVETICUM is a beginners' Latin book based on the text of Caesar. It provides for thorough drill in forms and syntax, as the important part of the first year's work. In addition it offers the advantage of acquainting the pupil thoroughly with connected Latin text. Where this book is used there is no break between the first and second years.

If you are interested we should be glad to send you a copy of the revised edition.
